 - d. This punishment was realized under _____'__ reign – II Samuel 21:1 – 9. (Verse 1)
 2. The point is this, when we make peace, _____ peace, bind yourself to it! If we can't make peace, be ready to make war.
- B. As the Redeemed of the Lord, we are at _____ against sin, Satan and our flesh, and will be so until the day we die or the Rapture takes place.
- C. As the Redeemed of the Lord, we can't afford to _____ sin, Satan or our flesh! Sin, Satan and our flesh has only one agenda, to attack God and the Redeemed and _____ all things righteous. This triumvirate, is in an all our war with absolutely no desire for peace.
- D. When it comes to sin or anything that exalts itself against all things righteous, we can't make _____ with any aspect of sin, we are at war with all aspects of it all – II Corinthians 10:2 - 4.
- E. How we are to wage this war is to live godly and expose sin and its characteristics while giving out the Gospel. (We need to be sure we are _____ the message we want to share!)

V. A double-minded man makes a _____ warrior. – James 1:8. Deuteronomy 24:5

- A. We may ask what does this have to do with the subject before us?
1. Marriage needs to start off on the _____ foot which involves getting to know each other.
 - a. A newly married man off to war is not going to have his _____ in battle at hand.
 - b. On the home front, wait to have children and _____ a brief time of getting to know each other.
 2. We will never be _____ Christians or wage a successful war if we are double-minded.
 3. When we don't know why we believe what we believe, we're being _____ - _____.
 4. If we don't know why it is important to _____ our Bible is inerrant, we will be double-minded.
 5. If we don't how important _____ church is to us, it is because we are double-minded.
- B. We have Christians bleeding to death on the _____ battlefield, why? They are double-minded!
- a. They refuse to fight the enemy; they do all they can do to avoid the inevitable.
 - c. Jeremiah 6:14 & 8:11 – Folks, as long as we are living in this fallen world, there will be no peace in this battle against sin, Satan and our flesh here in this fallen world.
